

MUSEUM STORY HUNT

The Museum Story Hunt tells the story of the mission in the early 1800s while engaging the students in a hands-on activity. It may be used with preschool through about 4th grade, using different strategies depending upon age groups.

INSTRUCTIONS

1- An adult reads the story out loud until a pointing hand is found indicating a picture.

2- Show the listeners the picture and ask them to find the object in one of the two museum rooms.

3- After finding the object, talk about the the object and its importance in understanding the history.

- Continue reading the story until the next pointing hand and repeating steps 2 and 3 each time.

NOTES

All of the pictures are found inside the two museum rooms excluding the video room. Whereas some of the picture-objects will be easy to find, others are taken with a close-up lens and can be more difficult

Ask to borrow the book at the Visitor Center desk.
